

Our Mission

In the changing landscape of modern communications, we tell stories, share passions, and engage our communities through digital media. For non-profits and churches it can be difficult to keep pace with the shifting expectations of online platforms and to afford the time and financial resources to fully engage the creative possibilities on offer through well-curated digital design and communications. That's where Jubilee Design Collaborative comes in.

Our Team

We are a small, contract design and communications team staffed by graphic designers and communications professionals with years of experience and hearts for service. We are passionate about supporting non-profits and churches in leveraging modern communications platforms to creatively share the stories and narratives that give voice to the foundational values and convictions behind their work.

JDC operates as a creative partner to help bring our friends' visions to life with all the color, vibrancy, and appeal contemporary digital communications and design sense can offer - and we do it all at rates that demonstrate our commitment to supporting churches and non-profits.

If that sounds like the sort of support & partner you need, we'd love to team up!

Our Goals

Our goal is always to curate a digital communications product that reflects you. We take the "Collaborative" element of our name very seriously. We have the skills and expertise to bring your communications vision to life and we'd love to work with you to make it happen!

Management

Web & Social Media Management

The nature of non-profit work means that staff members are often stretched and forced to wear multiple hats. When it comes to your online presence, web maintenance, creating, connecting, and managing social media is a full time job that can lead to huge benefits in visibility and interest in your organization. Yet, both can get lost in the shuffle of all of the other important work you do! Let us take care of the web for you.
